

ORIENTATION TO BASIC TRAINING IN BOOTCAMP

As volunteers in the Almighty's "latter-day" Remnant service, you have been mustered to this orientation because you are about to embark on "basic training" In the BOOT CAMP designed to front-load you with necessary knowledge to begin the education you will need to carry out the vital tasks your commander-in-Chief has prophesied by His prophets for the guidance of the Returning Ten Tribes (RTT) of Israel.

Some may ask, "Why is there a military theme throughout this site? Is such a warlike theme "appropriate" for a site which has to do with a "Biblical" orientation whose ultimate goal is peace?"

This is an appropriate question to ask by many Biblically oriented persons, especially by those who are committed to the regathering of the Tribes of Israel. The main reasons for a military theme for the RegatheringTenTribes.org are contained in the inspired wisdom of King Solomon:

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; — Ecc. 3:1-3 KJV

This key verse contains all the essential activities that a military operation does. These are also all necessary tasks that the Almighty's Remnant is required to do. Here is a short correlation of Solomon's observation of the scope of human activities and the assigned specially purposed "holy tasks" for the Remnant to do.

Purpose:

The LORD is a man of war, The LORD is His name וְהוּא יְהוָה שֶׁלֹחֵם יְהוָה וְהוּא
— Ex. 15:3 KJV

The God of Israel calls himself "A Man of War." The very purpose, the singular raison d'être of the Remnant is to be a "saving" Remnant in the "service" of the same God of Israel who went to war in order to save Israel from slavish imprisonment in idolatrous Egypt. In the first commandment God's primary identity is intrinsically connected to having brought Israel out of bondage. This "saving" event was an "act of war."

I am the LORD thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.
— Ex. 20:3 KJV

The "saving Remnant" of this "Man of War" is called to serve as God's appointed special forces, "armed" with the power of God's Spirit to carry out essential parts of His plan for saving Israel in times of existential crises. Yes, it is a "service" just as the armed forces of our countries are a “service” with multiple tasks. Yet, as “government issues” (GIs) of the Almighty, the overall purpose of His Remnant is to defend and promote the spiritual safety of the people whose God-given values and government they are sworn to uphold. In our days these “special forces” can be best understood by likening them to the official “Construction Battalion” of the United States Navy. These men have gallantly distinguished themselves since 1942 as the vital preparatory leading edge of our armed forces around the world. They were popularly called “Seabees,” composed mostly of senior men who were experienced in the trades necessary to prepare access in theaters of war for the large forces to use later. They built beach and interior land access, roads, bridges, air strips, fortifications and communication lines in battle zones all under enemy fire. On this site the ReturningTenTribes.org “Remnant of the Almighty” in our time is alternately referred to as the “Seabees of the Almighty.” They are to be preparatory troops in the process of the Redemption of Israel.

Season and time:

At the time of the beginning awakening of the Ten Tribes in the Valley of Dry Bones, the small, select, special forces of the Remnant are called up into action. The time is “the prophesied “latter days.” The season is the transition time for the Returning Ten Tribes (RTT) from being “spiritually dead” to becoming spiritually alive.” It is a season of learning and thereby coming out of the opened prison houses. That is why this site has to do with classes with lessons for learning essential basics. The place for that is called “Boot Camp” for the (RTT).

To build up:

The Remnant are selected to awaken first in the Valley of Dry Bones. They are called up first to volunteer because they are commissioned to build “the Road of Return.” On this prophesied straight path of the “Highway for the People” the millions of the RTT of Israel are to return to their lost identities to be restored to their assigned function as the forgiven, bona fide members of Israel, the “Kingdom of Priests.” Concomitantly, they are to build the Road for the Return for the God of Israel to His People. This is explained in Boot Camp lessons.

To pluck up:

The Remnant is to pluck up, clean up and remove the time-honored errors and lies from the Ancient Paths of the Torah on which the RTT are to return home to their God. These stumbling blocks are the accumulated trash, weeds, additions, deletions, exits, dead ends, crooked alterations, blatant lies, all idolatries.

To plant:

This small force of the “saving” Remnant is deployed to all parts of the world to build the commanded bases around the world where the Remnant of the RTT are to network and gather together for learning the tenets of the Torah.

To break down:

Armed forces “break things.” This is a major task of the Remnant to break down, demolish the idolatries and the theological edifices the Ten Tribes have inherited from their fathers, teachers, pastors and cultures. These mind- forged manacles have imprisoned the Ten Tribes in their spiritual prison houses for some three thousand years.

To kill:

Yes, the Remnant is to lead in asking the Almighty to kill the evil inclination in our human nature by transforming it into a positive force with which to “love the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob with all of one’s heart, all one’s soul and all one’s might.”

To heal:

The Ten Tribes are described as spiritually “sick” and in desperate need of the healing of their split hearts. A major task of the benevolent forces of the “saving” Remnant is to be “instruments of healing” in the hands of the Almighty who is called the “Healer of Israel” (Ex.15:26).

The classes and lessons in this Boot Camp will enlarge upon the amazing “revealed” Scriptural details on the above “military” principles on which and by which the “latter-day” Construction Battalion, i.e. the “Seabees of the Almighty” are prophetically slated to operate. Further basic organizational details are in the classes you will take.

The LORD is my strength and song, and He is become my salvation; this is my God, and I will glorify Him; my father's God, and I will exalt Him. — Ex. 15:2 KJV

Learning in these Boot Camp classes will not be enough for the training you will need. Though the knowledge you will gain in them will be “basic,” they will be the essential foundations on which you will build “experiential” knowledge, i.e. “skills” you will accrue by “doing.” Besides reading and testing yourself and your battle-buddies and discussing the principles you must digest, inculcate and know, you will be praying and listening a lot and begin to do what you have been selected to do with your battle-buddies.

Yes, battle-buddies, because though the “Work” into which you have enlisted is one of “building and restoration,” it will call for “action” on the battle-fields of “Good vs. Evil” which are to precede the Great Shabbat. Having battle-buddies will be as necessary as being personally and constantly in touch with our Divine Headquarters as well as with the networks of the Remnant CBs worldwide.

As the networks will take shape and Divine input-guidance will be sent from on High, we will be informed re what concerted actions are to be taken to build the Highway of Return for the Ten Tribes. You are dismissed to your Boot Camp classes. Carry on!
